The above groups are identified as general areas. Accordingly, as groups they are independent or distinct as the various product groups differ materially in structure and in element, the compounds would be capable of more than one use and separate search considerations are involved.

On March 20, 1996 applicant's representative Marla Mathias elected the subject matter of Group I via telephone, with traverse.

The remaining subject matter of Groups II-VI stands withdrawn, 37 CFR 1.142(b). Should the elected subject matter be found allowable, the examiner will also examine the corresponding subject matter of Group V which has been done.
